EDITORIAL NOTES.

Cuba "practically free" will not do at all; Cuba absolutely free and independent is the proper thing.

If ever one country had a just cause to declare war against another, the U.
S. has against Spain.

Mr. McKinley should be very careful to return the confidence he expects from Congress and the people.

The new comet is traveling towards the earth at the rate of a million miles a day, which is slightly faster than we are traveling towards war with Spain.

Prince Luigi, of Italy, is clearly a man of both means and nerve; he is backing an Alaskan gold-hunting party, and will lead in person a North Pole expedition.

The official report of the loss of the Maine, even without the evidence, much of which is sensational in character, should be sufficient to cause Congress to declare war against Spain.

The Spanish report on the loss of Maine is not of the slightest importance, the truth having already been stated by our own Naval Court of Inquiry.

Hurrah! for Teddy Roosevelt. He told Mr. McKinley the other day that he knew 85 per cent of our people were for immediate war, believing it necessary to the preservation of our national honor.

More than a week ago the Spanish officers at Havana were officially notified by the government of Spain to prepare for war with the U. S. Still, the diplomats are talking peace.

Mr. McKinley should remember that no question is settled until it is settled right, and that any settlement that leaves the Spanish flag flying over Cuba will be wrong.

Tammy officials appear to have uncovered some wholesale stealing from the former corporation of B. O. Klyn.
"Let no guilty man escape" should be the motto, in the prosecutions, which have been started.

There never was a time when the people were so closely watching their Representatives in Congress. The right thing will be commended and rewarded, and the wrong thing punished, at the ballot box.

If the question of whether we should whip Spain or make a peaceable deal with her and leave Cuba under the Spanish flag were submitted to a vote of the people of the U. S. more than three-fourths of them would vote for war.

A Peerless Liniment.

As a pain destroyer and cure for rheumatism, Salivation Oil is the peer of all liniments. Mr. Wm. H. Brown, proprietor of Striebing House, Cleveland, O., writes: "I suffered from rheumatism for twelve years and my last attack kept me in bed, unable to walk. I used Salivation Oil and soon was up and about. As a pain destroyer this liniment has no equal." Salivation Oil is sold everywhere for 25 cents. Try it and be convinced.

It is not surprising that Congress should be restive under the administration policy of regarding "the official report that the Maine was destroyed by a mine as a minor issue in dealing with Spain. The people are even more so.

The evidence of every man of intelligence who has recently been in Cuba is that there is only one way in which the terrible suffering on the island can be permanently ended—by the intervention of the U. S. The people of the U. S. want intervention, but the President still negotiates.

When Ricciotti Garibaldi said that he would send 40,000 Garibaldians from Italy to fight the Spanish in Cuba, if the U. S. would pay the expenses, he probably did not know that Americans enough to drive the Spanish out of Cuba in short order were fairly bank-ering for the permission of Uncle Sam to start.

"Fighting Bob" Evans, who is now in command of the battleship Iowa, has no love for the Spanish. He told President Cleveland, many months ago, that if he would only say the word he would undertake to make Spanish the language most spoken in Madrid, in short order.

THE DAILY RECORD.

We welcome to our exchange table Stanton's new "Democratic Daily, The Record. It is a neat six column four page paper, and is an up-to-date newspaper, but it could not be otherwise when our friend Geo. O. Green holds the editorial pen. He is one of the best and most progressive newspaper men in the State. Our sister city of Stanton should be proud of her Democratic Daily and accord it a heartily support. It takes money as well as good wishes, to run a newspaper.

The Duke of Veragua, who will be remembered in this country from his connection with the American tour of the Spanish Infante, Eulalie, several years ago; also from his hint that he was willing, as a descendant of Columbus, to accept a purse from Americans —hints that were never acted upon—is reported as having said: "President McKinley does not inspire me with confidence. He thinks himself the first statesman in the world. He is proud and vain, and his great vanity makes him believe himself a Napoleon, when, in reality, he is an ignorant souter."

BEATS THE KLONDIKE.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike, for years he suffered untold agony from consumption accompanied by hemorrhages, and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds.

"We always take several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family every spring as a tonic and blood purifier, and we find that it overcomes that tired feeling gives new life, and keeps us well all summer." WM. KIRKMAN, 612 5th Ave., Peoria, Illinois.

Excellent Spring Medicine.
"For a number of years I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla in the spring, not for any particular ailment, but on general principle, that the system needs a tonic at this time, and I have always found Hood's Sarsaparilla a most excellent spring medicine." HAZEN HAMMER, Engineer, Pottstown, Pennsylvania.

That Tired Feeling.
"I was troubled with that tired feeling all the spring. I purchased three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken about half of it I was feeling well again. I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla to be an excellent blood purifier and tonic." MISS O. E. MORGAN, Bussey, Illinois.

Builds up the Health.
"We take Hood's Sarsaparilla as a tonic in the spring. Two of our children had tonsillitis and their blood was in a bad condition. Hood's Sarsaparilla built them up, and we have taken it again this spring with much benefit." MRS. P. H.
CANDOR, Pleasant Lake, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else instead. There is no substitute for Hood's.

Rockbridge Falls, Va., April 4.— The cold snap that is still upon us has already killed all of the peach germs in this locality. The apples, though not killed, we fear have been injured to a considerable extent. Experience has proven that apples never do well after having a check by frost, and we may reasonably estimate the loss in our county by thousands even though they may sustain no future injury.

The musical entertainment given at Bethesda on Thursday night of last week was a perfect success in a financial point of view and gave evidence not only of thorough training but of talent in that line, on the part of those who engaged in it. The support, in connection, was all that could have been desired. Result of the two about $40.00.

Prof. Snider, with half a dozen or more of his trained singers, attended by special request an entertainment at Walker's Creek Church on Friday night last. They went on the promise of being well cared for and judging from their report, that promise was very faithfully fulfilled. They all think it well that the music preceded that of the eating entertainment.

There is a feeling of gloom throughout this entire community in consequence of the extreme illness of Mrs.
McElwee whose case I have had occasion to mention so often. Until recently there was a fondly cherished hope of her recovery, but such a change has taken place, that there is now but little, if any hope for such result.

Mrs. Tolley, whose case I have also repeatedly mentioned, has been for two weeks or more lying in a semi-conscious condition with little change, from a human view, for recovery. Why the best amongst us and those whose lives seem to us to be the most important, should so often be selected by a kind Providence to suffer so severely and so long, is one of the mysterious workings of an Almighty hand not to be solved by the finite mind.

Since beginning this article snow began to fall and, at the close, is still coming down rapidly.

SPRINGFIELD SPRINKLINGS.

(Gazette Correspondence.)

Springfield, Va., April 4, 1898.
Our neighborhood is very quiet just now, every body busy. So Mr. Editor you know when that is the case there is very little to tell.

Miss Lorena Houston returned home last week after spending the winter in New York.

Mr. W. E. L. Starke has sold to Mr. John Shafer the Jenkins farm, Mr.
Shafer to take possession in the autumn.
Mr. James E. Heck, of Lexington, accompanied by Master Harry Heck, spent Sunday here visiting his aunt, Mrs. W. A. McClelland.
Miss Matilda Houston is visiting friends at Hollins Institute.

The Mormon Elders are still in this neighborhood doing missionary work, but I haven't heard of any converts so far.

MRS. PARNELL BURIED.

The remains of Mrs. Delia Tudor Parnell, the aged mother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, were buried Friday in Dublin, Ireland, beside the grave of her distinguished son. Her death was caused by the igniting of her clothing while sitting before a fire.
A vast concourse formed in procession to the cemetery. Many wreaths and other tokens of remembrance were sent by sympathizers of struggling Ireland.

MEMORIAL OFFERED BY HON.
WM. A. ANDERSON AND AP-PROVED APRIL 4th, 1898, BY
THE BAR AND OFFICE OF THE COURTS OF ROCK-
BRIDGE, VA., IN REFERENCE TO THE DEATH OF JUDGE
JAMES K. EDMONDSON.

JUDGE JAMES K. EDMONDSON.

Death has again invaded the ranks of our profession, and carried from us one of the most useful and most beloved members of this bar.

At midnight on the 31st of March the soul of James K. Edmondson was surrendered to his God.

He was born in this county sixty-six years ago, on his father's farm about two miles below Buena Vista. He attended schools in the neighborhood, and was subsequently a student of Washington College. After leaving college in 1853, he entered the Clerk's Office of Rockbridge County as the deputy for Charles Clinfin the Clerk of the County.

Owing to the death of his father when he was quite young, he was early thrown upon his own resources and developed those inherited principles of strict integrity, self-reliance, and independence which he illustrated throughout his life.

In 1860, he was made the Sergeant and Clerk of the Town of Lexington in which capacity he served until the breaking out of the war between the States.

One of the first companies which went to the front in that great struggle was the Rockbridge Rifles in which young Edmondson marched as a lieutenant. His Company was attached first to the 4th and afterwards to the 27th Regiment of Virginia Infantry, both regiments belonging to the command afterwards known as the Stonewall Brigade, whose name will go down the ages with the Macedonian Phalanx of Alexandria, the Tenth Legion of Caesar, the Paladins of Charlemagne, the Ironsides of Cromwell and the Old Guard of Napoleon.

Even in that illustrious command his skill and fidelity as an officer, and his courage as an indomitable fighter, were conspicuous—and he was so rapidly promoted that in 1863, he was made the Colonel of the 27th Virginia —always because of its gallantry and its heavy losses, known as "The Bloody 27th."

In the persistent and splendid onslaught made on General Hooker's Army at Chancellorsville in May, 1863, in which the Stonewall Brigade led, Col. Edmondson received a terrible wound in his breast, and had his left arm shattered above the elbow so severely that amputation at the shoulder socket became necessary.

He survived this critical and trying ordeal, and as upon his partial recovery from the shock to his constitution assigned to duty as Commandant of the 27th, at then established at Lexington.

Subsequently, on the death of Mr.
Vulfin, he was appointed Clerk of the County Court of Rockbridge, a position to which he was afterwards elected by the people, and which he held until 1868, when he was removed by the order of Major General Canby issued under the Reconstruction Acts. He was about this time appointed a Commissioner in Chancery of the Circuit Court of Rockbridge, an office which he held and the duties of which he discharged with consummate ability for nearly thirty years.

In 1869 he studied law at Washington College, and in the following year was elected the first Judge of the County Court of Rockbridge, a position to which he was chosen for a second term in 1874 and from which he retired at the end of that term after ten years of most satisfactory service, to enter upon the more active practice of his profession.

In 1893 he was chosen as one of the Representatives from Rockbridge in the General Assembly of Virginia, and was a member of the Finance Committee of the House of Delegates during the Session of 1893-94, achieving distinction as a most capable legislator.

From 1870 he was a member of the Board of Trustees of Washington and Lee University, and rendered very valuable service to that Institution, particularly in connection with the management of its financial interests.

He was also for some time a member of the Board of Visitors, and of the Executive Committee of the Western Hospital for the Insane at Staunton, and was afterwards a member of the Board of Visitors of the Virginia Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution—a position which he held at the date of his death.

He was an active and most useful member of the Executive Committee of the Lee Memorial Association which after twelve years of earnest effort succeeded in completing the mausoleum and monument to Gen. R. E. Lee at the University Chapel; and he was the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Jackson Memorial Association under whose auspices, the monument at the grave of Stonewall Jackson was erected, and to his unremitting efforts the success of that movement was largely due.

He was unwilling to go to his rest until the earthly resting place of the two great commanders under whom he had fought with an enthusiasm, a devotion and a courage equal to their own, should be appropriately marked and commemorated.

Forty-one years ago in the joyous brightness of his youthful manhood, he won the affections and the hand in wedlock of Miss Emily J. Taylor of Angusta county—an event which contributed more to his happiness and exerted a greater influence upon his career than all the other occurrences of his eventful lifetime.

In early life he united with the Presbyterian church—the church of his fathers, and was as in all else, an unobtrusive but a sincere and humble follower of his Redeemer.
Such is an outline of the main facts of his long and useful life. It will be seen that it was a life largely spent in the discharge of public duties. It may be truly said, that it was a life consecrated to the service of his family, his friends and his country.

And now this life so blessed to all who came within the sphere of its influence, is ended—and we are left to mourn the "honest, manly, loyal heart that has ceased to beat," and as a noble spirit goes ever breathed the pure air of this region so prolific in heroes and patriots.

We honor his memory as a lawyer honorable, diligent, capable, faithful and true to the interests of his clients; a master in Chancery, who was of the most accurate and accomplished of accountants; a judge who ably and firmly discharged his high duties and always held the scales of justice equally balanced; a citizen whose patriotism and public spirit ever made him foremost in every good word and work for the common weal; a soldier who risked his life and shed his blood in the defence of his country, with a cheerfulness and a dauntless courage which stamped him as a hero; a friend whose loyalty and affection were as constant as were the currents of his own being.

It Judge Edmondson excelled in anything more than another, it was in the discharge of his duties as a fiduciary. His skill, ability, fidelity and excellent judgment were signally illustrated as general receiver of the Circuit Court of Rockbridge county, as executor, or administrator, or trustee and assignee of the Bank of Lexington, and as president of the Bank of Rockbridge.

In all his dealings with his fellows, in the discharge of all the varied and important duties which were devolved upon him during his busy life, he was over the earnest, patient, methodical, considerate, modest gentleman.
We, his brethren of the bar, and the officers of the Courts of Rockbridge county, who have been so intimately associated with him, deplore his loss as that of an honored and beloved friend.

To her who has been throughout his active manhood his help-mate and the sharer of his sorrows and joys, we tender our heartfelt sympathy in her irreparable bereavement with the hope that a merciful God will give her comfort and peace until she shall join him on the other shore.

On motion it was resolved that this memorial be furnished to the Richmond and Rockbridge papers for publication, that the secretary communicate a copy of it to the widow of our lamented friend and that it be presented to the County and Circuit Courts of Rockbridge by members of the bar to be selected by the chairman, with the request that it be spread upon the minutes of these Courts.

The following gentlemen were appointed by the chairman to present the memorial to the Courts:
FRANK T. GRASSHOPE, to the County Court.
WM. A. ANDERSON, to the Circuit Court.
T. SHIELDS, Secretary.
S. H. LETCHER, Chairman.

GLASGOW GLEANINGS.

Glasgow, Va., April 4, '98.—The N. & W.
Co., has ordered Mr. J. T. McCarthy to return to Glasgow, from which station he was transferred about ten days ago and at which place he has so efficiently managed the company's business for about four years. The company has reinstated the agent at Crimora, the station that Mr. McCarthy had been assigned to.

Quite a number of our townsmen have gone to Court to-day and Glasgow looks like Goldsmith's "Deserted Village."

Our oldest citizens say they never saw wheat look better around here at this time of the year than it does now, and predict a heavy crop, in fact all vegetation is unusually far advanced for this time of the year.

The Methodists are arranging to have an Easter celebration at their church next Monday. They anticipate much enjoyment for the old people and fun for the young in reading and recitations, etc., to be wound up with an egg hunt by the children.

The Cuban question has been on hand till it has been discussed from every point. Still the weight of argument seems to be in favor of allowing the administration ample time to hear from Spain and deliberate on its reply before taking decisive action. There don't seem to be near so much of the war spirit manifested since Spain revoked its con-cesso orders and appropriated the $500,000 for the relief of the suffering women and children. Still some think nothing less than war can atone for the Maine and insist on prompt action by the government.

The thought has been suggested here that this is a good time and the Cuban question offers a means for settling the negro problem.
They advise declaring Cuba free and backing the declaration by arms, and when peace is declared annex Cuba to the United States and offer sufficient inducements to the negroes to cause them to emigrate there. As it is already populated to a great extent by negroes they would find congenial society and could enjoy self government, which they can never hope to do here.

We understand the deal between Mrs.
Parsons, of Natural Bridge, Va. and H. S.
Caruth, a capitalist of Boston, has been consummated. Mrs. Parsons has sold the Bridge and a very large tract of land several thousand acres, but not including the hotels.
They belong to a boom company and are such a condition that he can't get hold of them yet. Now if he would take out a large hotel at Glasgow, connect it with the Bridge by a railroad, which is hoped he will soon do, he would have a bonanza.

The first violation of law punished by a fine since our own government was organized took place last week when Mr. S. C.
VanLandingham increased the town treasury $1.00 for piling wood in the street.

Rev. P. A. Anthony, of the Buena Vista Baptist church, began a series of meetings in the Methodist church. He contemplates continuing several nights and expects to be assisted by Rev. E. M. Mason, of Natural Bridge. We hope they may do much good and succeed in establishing a Baptist church, as we have none at this place.

JAY.

A FORTUNE FOR A STREET WALK.

A special from Luray says that Charlotte Grayson, a "little Italian girl, and an innate of Dr. Wharton's "Whoosever Farm," has fallen heir to a fortune of $60,000, and on last Saturday the Italian Consul at New York came to Luray to get her. Last fall one year ago, several Italians came to the farm and tried to get the child, at last resorting to an attempt to kidnap her.
However, they were foiled and the other day when parties came after her to take her to New York, they were refused and only would the officers of the farm give her up when the Consul came. The girl is very pretty and was picked up by Dr. Wharton in the streets of Washington and taken to his farm, where he has a number of similar abandoned children and orphans. This piece of good fortune cannot be realized by the little one, but it means a great deal for her future career.

BEAUTIFUL SEA SHELLS.

Every one admires them. Since coming south I have received numerous inquiries from northern people for sea shells, and now I am prepared to answer yes. I can send you shells, for I have made quite a collection of lovely shells, both from our own coast, the coral reefs, and some beautiful ones from the West India Islands. I will mail a dozen, no two alike, to any one who sends a stamp, for postage.

Yours,

Don't bolt your food, it irritates your stomach. Choose digestible food and chew it. Indigestion is a dangerous sickness. Proper care prevents it. Shaker Digestive Cordial cures it.
That is the long and short of indigestion. Now the question is: Have you got indigestion? Yes, if you have pain or discomfort after eating, headache, dizziness, nausea, offensive breath, heartburn, languor, weakness, fever, jaundice, flatulence, loss of appetite, irritability, constipation, etc. Yes, you have indigestion. To cure it, take Shaker Digestive Cordial. The medicinal herbs and plants of which Shaker Digestive Cordial is composed, help to digest the food in your stomach; help to strengthen your stomach. When your stomach is strong, care will keep it so. Shaker Digestive Cordial is for sale by druggists, price 10 cents to $3.00 per bottle.

Thin Blood
Where the blood loses its vital red—green—thin and watery, as in anemia, there is a constant feeling of exhaustion, a lack of energy—vitality and the spirits depressed.
Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is peculiarly adapted to correct this condition. The cod-liver oil, emulsified to an exquisite fineness, enters the blood direct and feeds its every corpuscle, restoring the natural color and giving vitality to the whole system. The hypophosphites reach the brain and nerve centres and add their strengthening and beneficial effect.
If the roses have left your cheeks, if you are growing thin and exhausted from overwork, or if age is beginning to tell, use SCOTT'S Emulsion.
Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.
All druggists; 50c. and $1.00.
